Why Invest In Ameen Housing?

It's a big temptation to fall into interest "Riba" bearing financial transactions, a trap fraught with perils in this life and the Here- After.

- In general, it is not permissible for Muslims to invest in treasury bonds, money market funds, certificate of deposits, and other such investments due to the element of interest.
- A.H.C invests the funds to make Islamic investments that allow you to earn Halal dividends quarterly.
- Your investment is secured through real estate investments in owner-occupied homes.

Become an Investor Now!!!

- Investing in A.H.C eases diversification of holdings, into real estate. A prudent investor usually has some percentage of their portfolio in real estate thereby shielding his/her investment from the gyrations in the stock markets.
 - Investor funds help gain independence from interest-based institutions.
- In addition to earning Halal profits on your investments, you will also earn the reward of helping others stay away from Riba.

Your money with AHC is put for a better cause and better return than keeping it in a checking account benefiting only a Riba-based bank.
